

Gloves $1.29
Just received by el-clasp cape gloves in the tan. Perfect fitting. Regular values.
(Main Floor)

White Spreads $1 in these. Full double crochet spreads with hemmed assortment of wanted patterns values.
(Main Floor)

Quality Sheets 45c size, 72 by 90 inches.
heavy sheeting with improved
Regularly sold at 60c; good
(Main Floor)

Satin Foulards 75c is special lot. All the in small and large figured wear rough. Fall 24 ins. wide quality.
(Main Floor)

Spring Suiting 69c
$1.25 quality—42 and Splendid range of Spring and plaids. Panama and Sicilian
(Main Floor)

Wool Taffetas 79c
date spring material, yards from which to choose, and effects. Comes 46 inches
$1.25 value:
(Main Floor)

Wool Waisting 29c and 75c grades in the 28
ths. Plaids, stripes and small in batiste and brilliantine weaves
(Main Floor)

Velvets, Special 19c ce day in the art deo tables filled with useful ani-
5c. Pillow tops, pillow cushions,
(Main Floor)

Points of the News
IN TODAY'S ISSUE

Young Men
Spring wear complete and that is cor-
for boys, chil-
we fit all ages

Shop

ng Togs

VS

Young Men
Spring wear complete and that is cor-
for boys, chil-
we fit all ages

25c to $6.00.
$0 to $10.00.
$3.50 to $15.00.
$1.50.
$0 to $2.00.
$0 to $3.50.
Light Shirts 50c to $2.50.
Unlites 50c to $2.50.
$1.50.

invited, guaranteed
filled.

venile Co.

429 So.Broadway
L. Schwartz, Mgr.

It's You

0.00
down 10.00 monthly

Credit Plan

the furniture you home. Try it married. We'll fur-you'll do the rest.

YEAR'S below Fifth
H MAIN STREET

Alfred S. Bigelow disposes of copper inand California Hecla Company has control of Lake Superior Inter-Trade firm on New York Stock Exchange; total sales per value, $4,254,000.

Associated Press gives warm rec-eommendation to visit Ireland, an unparalleled opportunity for a Premier, but careful of political affairs approaching crisis over financial problems.

Financial

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 27.

WOMAN'S TONGUE.
BIG MEN IN FAKE BOUTS.

Wife of Victim Breaks up Swindling Gang.

Half-Million Dollars Won by Operators

Hundred Arrests in Many Cities Promised.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

COUNCIL BLUFFS (Iowa) Feb. 26.—[Exclusive: Dispatch.] A woman's boast of how her husband had won $20,000 reaching the ears of the wife of the loser, brought out the clews leading to the capture in Little Rock of the members of the alleged swindle syndicate which has won more than $1,000,000 in pension dollars on fake horse races, and swindling bouts from men attracted to its offices from all parts of the country.

The boaster was Mrs. J. R. Dobbins, a former Princeton (Mo.) woman. She wrote to friends in Princeton, telling how her husband had won $20,000 from T. W. Ballew, a Princeton banker. Ballew had kept his loss to himself, but his wife heard of the story. Mrs. Dobbins had written to her friends. She questioned him and he confessed that he had lost $20,000 on a fake horse race. He argued that they should keep still about it, but Mrs. Ballew insisted that he tell the police, and she had her way.

Dr. C. V. Vanderveck, whose name appears in the swindler's books as that of one man from whom they obtained $200,000, denies that he was one of the "swackers."

"They did not get any of my money—not directly," he said. "That was money belonging to Eugene Schmitt, a friend of mine, who formerly lived in St. Louis. The last I heard of him he was living in Los Angeles."

One hundred arrests in different cities and towns throughout the country will be made in connection with the capture of the gang.

H. S. Swanson, the postoffice inspector, who heads the arresting party at Little Rock, returned to Council Bluffs this morning and is now completing arrangements for making arrests of the accomplices.

"We have names of many known, the names of those who have not yet been arrested," said the inspector. "However, we have a list of 300 agents of the swindlers in as many different cities and towns throughout the country, probably not guilty of crime, but many of them undoubtedly are. And we have their names and addresses."

"One of the greatest catches in the country may be the swallower for months, but they seemed to be informed of our movements and always got away just in time. From this list, we find that some detectives have been following in the wake of the gang, and we know now the tip that the arrest was about to be made from them."

The country may be surprised very slightly at the arrest of some mighty big men in connection with this deal. There are some men connected with the gang whose reputations are more or less safe, and if these arrests are made there will be an uproar."

POLITICAL

STEPHENSON TURNS TRICK.

SUPPORTERS GET GOVERNOR TO SIGN ELECTION CERTIFICATE.

Take Stand Senator Was Re-elected on Separate Ballot, and Armed With Papers, Messenger Rushes to Washington—Daily Vote and Continued Deadlock Go on.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

MADISON (Wis.) Feb. 24.—While the Wisconsin Legislature continues to ballot for United States Senator in joint assembly, the supporters of Senator Isaac Stephenson contend that Stephenson was elected United States Senator on separate ballot January 25, when he received a majority of votes cast in each branch of the Legislature.

Taking the stand that Stephenson was elected on separate ballot, his supporters secured a certificate of election signed by Gov. Edward G. Devlin and counter-signed by Secretary of State James A. Frear, and last night United States District Attorney W. G. Wheeler left for Washington with this certificate.

The separate ballot gave Stephenson sixty votes in the Assembly, thirty-four in the Senate, and twelve of the seventeen votes cast in the Senate. Sixteen Senators were present and voting "present."

Lieut.-Gov. John Strange, who presided over the joint Assembly when a ballot for United States Senator is being taken, has fully refused from time to time to entertain a motion that Stephenson be elected on separate ballot each time he has come out of order and ordering the clerk to call the roll.

Since the balloting in joint session began, Senator Stephenson has failed to secure a majority, and the State now stands 49 out of 112 cast. Necessary to elect, 57.

MAY BE SEATED.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—It is not believed in the Senate that presentation of certificate merely, citing the action of the two houses of the Wisconsin Legislature in casting each a majority, will give Senator Stephenson a seat until he is seated in the Senate without investigation.

If the Governor of Wisconsin has attached his name to a document certifying that Stephenson has presented what Mr. Stephenson will be seated upon his presentation.

POSSUM MARKET SOARS.

ATLANTA, Feb. 25.—From 50 cents each to $10 is the remarkable rise in the "possum market" within the past month as a result of the featuring of this marsupial in the recent Taft band wagon. The Atlanta Journal has been swarming with orders for them from the North and East; one announcing today that he had orders for $20 at $10 each, the prospective purchasers desiring them to pay.

SHOWS HOW TO USE GUN.

"I gave him the pistol. He did not know how to use it. I told him all he had to do was to pull the trigger. I removed the loads and demonstrated the use of the weapon."

Open Tonight Until Ten O'clock. Sample Shoe Co., Bryson Bldg., 2nd and Spring.

There will be an abundance of good fiction in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

WILL BE WITNESS IN COOPER-SHARPE TRIAL.

Gov. Patterson of Tennessee, who will be grilled by political opponents, who are lawyers in the trial of the Coopers and Sharpe for the murder of ex-Senator Carmack.

CARMACK'S TEMPER.

(Continued From First Page.)

"What was Senator Carmack's demeanor?"

"Quiet and calm."

"Did he denounce or attack Col. Cooper?"

"No, sir."

"Where did he put the revolver?"

"In his hip pocket."

"What did he say to Craig?"

"This was not the first threatening message he had received from Col. Cooper."

"You object to all this?" asked the court.

"We object to all except that the Senator put the revolver in his pocket. To all the rest we object because it was not communicated to the defendant or retorted Judge Anderson."

Another lengthy question followed.

STATE'S CONTENTION.

The State's contention was that the defense had tried to prove by Craig that Senator Carmack was in an ugly mood, that he sent for a revolver and that he beat up the victim.

It offered the proof that the Senator was not in an ugly mood, that he had a firm belief that there would be no trouble, that he wanted his friends and that he did not even know how to use it.

"It was recently exploded?"

"Yes, it blew up."

"Mr. W. F. Verres, who was of the National Guard and saw service in Cuba, was called. He knew Robin Cooper, and was trying a suit in Chancery Court with Robin Cooper the day of the shooting. He told Robin to court and waited for Robin. He arrived at 1 p.m., and said:

"I am sorry to have been detained, but I had a matter I could not leave for any lawsuit. I'll tell you about it later."

Witness said on Sunday night Park Marshall called on the telephone and said Senator Carmack wanted him.

CARMACK BORROWS GUN.

"I went to Senator Carmack's office about 10:20 p.m."

"What did Senator Carmack ask of you?"

"He said he wanted a revolver, and I loaned him mine."

"Was it loaded?"

"Yes, your loaded shells and two empty ones."

"What did you do with it?"

"I gave it to a policeman named Vaughn."

"Is this the revolver?"

"It is, or looks like one of the same type."

"How long did you have it?"

"I held it in my hand while until it began to attract attention then I dropped it into my pocket and walked away."

Another lengthy question followed.

STATE'S CONTENTION.

The State's contention was that the defense had tried to prove by Craig that Senator Carmack was in an ugly mood, that he sent for a revolver and that he beat up the victim.

Recess was taken before the arguments were finished.

Police Commissioner Hutchinson testified that he found the body of the late Senator in the street in a pool of blood. He identified the one he had seen earlier.

The defense next called T. Leigh Thompson, Deputy State Insurance Commissioner, who got to the scene of the shooting immediately after it occurred. He saw Carmack's body in the street in a pool of blood. He had seen the Senator before during the trial.

QUESTION OF THREATS.

The defense objected and was sustained.

"Did Mr. Carmack make any threats against Col. Cooper?"

Again the objection of the defense was sustained.

"If the threats made by the defense were communicated to the defendants, they could be shown," said the judge, "but it is not competent to prove that no threats were made. When no threats are proven it is presumed none were made."

After the jury had been excused the court adjourned.

"The marks of the Senator were communicated to the defendants they would be admissible as tending to show the state of the defendant's mind," said the State. Senator Carmack is dead, and the state of his mind is not in controversy, nor can it be."

"You know Senator Carmack?"

"Yes, sir. He was my best man at his wedding."

At this Mrs. Carmack turned to her sister, buried her head on her shoulder and broke into tears. The State then adjourned until Monday.

DEPUTY DELAYS WEDDING.

"Tell the jury what Senator Carmack said that night and what his appearance were?"

The defense objected and the jury was sent from the room at the State's request.

"Now," said the court, "let the major tell all about the meeting and let me judge."

The Senator, I told him I understood he wished to see me, and he said yes. Then he said in substance: "I have received a threatening message from the Deputy Sheriff, who arrived at the bride's home and caused quite a stir. The threats were directed at the bride and groom, and the bride and groom appeared the coolest of all at the wedding. The action of the deputy delayed the marriage about an hour.

WHAT CARMACK SAID.

(By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

STERLING (Ill.) Feb. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The marriage service of Albert Maseus to Mary Berisch, which was today being performed in Compton, was interrupted by a Deputy Sheriff who gave him a summons to appear in court.

The Senator was alone. I told him I understood he wished to see me, and he said yes. Then he said in substance: "I have received a threatening message from the Deputy Sheriff, who arrived at the bride's home and caused quite a stir. The threats were directed at the bride and groom, and the bride and groom appeared the coolest of all at the wedding. The action of the deputy delayed the marriage about an hour.

SOLDIERS SAVE WOMEN.

(By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

COLUMBUS (O.) Feb. 26.—Fire which originated from a gas explosion early today in the four-story building occupied by the Brunswick Bowling Company, destroyed the building.

The total loss is placed between $200,000 and $300,000. Many tenants occupying the upper rooms of the Brunswick Bowling Company and twenty families were driven out. Soldiers from the army barracks carried out a number of half-clad frightened women and children.

SHOWS HOW TO USE GUN.

"I gave him the pistol. He did not know how to use it. I told him all he had to do was to pull the trigger. I removed the loads and demonstrated the use of the weapon."

Open Tonight Until Ten O'clock. Sample Shoe Co., Bryson Bldg., 2nd and Spring.

There will be an abundance of good fiction in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

UP AND DOWN THE VALLEY.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

(By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The fifteenth real winter spell this year has passed by Chicago. The weather man today declared the most recent cold snap died out, and assured moderate temperature tomorrow. Today's maximum temperature was 51 deg., and the minimum 28 deg. Middle West temperatures:

Min. Max.
Alpen... 32 14
Bismarck... 33 22
Cairo... 33 28
Cheyenne... 32 16
Cincinnati... 56 28
Cleveland... 44 18
Concordia... 54 30
Davenport... 55 32
Denver... 42 28
Des Moines... 46 26
Devil's Lake... 55 22
Dodge City... 45 26
Dubuque... 25 10
Duluth... 28 12
Escanaba... 30 12
Grand Rapids... 45 26
Green Bay... 36 16
Helena... 42 26
Honolulu... 39 24
Kansas City... 58 22
Marquette... 28 14
Memphis... 62 42
Milwaukee... 45 24
Omaha... 42 34
St. Louis... 53 35
St. Paul... 50 26
Sainte Marie... 26 6
Spokane, Ill... 54 24
Springfield, Ill... 54 24
Wichita... 55 24

and 15,000 consumers on trial, free of charge for the iron itself, but that the moment the current was turned on, it cost the consumer an average of 50 cents, even if the iron was not used again.

TWO MANY "MARKS."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Fresh interest in the campaign of the Peoria stockholders in the announcement of "Jacob H. Marks, No. 1," for whom he will defend the primary nomination last Tuesday. The marksman, "Marks No. 2," declares that he will demand a recount of the City Clerk. "Marks No. 2" declares that he will demand a recount of the City Clerk.

"The election will be contested," says the campaigner. "Our campaign for cleanliness," said President White, "will begin Monday. We will have a staff of photographers search out these dirty yards, and maybe publicity will bring the public to look after their premises to their senses."

CHARITIES JOIN FORCES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Chicago's two great private charities—the Relief and Aid Society, and the Bureau of Charities—which for some time has been under consideration, is to be known as the Union of Charities. The new organization is to make possible the collection of information from various charities of the city and will constitute a clearinghouse whereby duplication and imposition will be prevented. Through this consolidation, it is said, certain expenses of administration will be offset and a great gain will be made in the efficiency and unity of the work.

DIG BY NIGHT FOR MILLIONS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Three million dollars in $100 bills is buried in a vacant lot, the plunder of either the car bandits or Paul Standard, the Milwaukee housekeeper who was killed yesterday. On Monday, 15,000 bags, or 45,000 bushels, of potatoes grown in Ulster, Ireland, were unloaded at Baltimore and a large part of the cargo was shipped West. Local commission men were not advised of any developments in this market, but said that Standard's disappearance was the first indication of the robbery.

WASHINGTON.
CAPITAL IS EN FETE FOR TAFT.

Flags Everywhere Await His Arrival Today.

Appointments With President-elect Numerous.

Daily Conferences at White House Scheduled.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President-elect Taft will return to Washington tomorrow morning to stay here probably until the extraordinary session of the Sixty-first Congress has closed its deliberations.

Mr. Taft will have a fairly adequate conception on his arrival of what the capital intends to do for him in the way of inaugural display. Flags are everywhere. Banners, streamers and signs in streams and in folds fall from nearly every Pennsylvania avenue window. The court of honor in front of the White House is completed, and festoons of electric lights cross and recross the avenue, every few yards. There are more bleacherlike grandstands than ever before were erected in Washington. The city intends to do the man a great honor, and the prayer of the populace is for fair weather.

Indications are that Mr. Taft will work harder during the five days he is awaiting the great event than he will during the entire term. He is known that appointments have been sought with the President-elect in greater numbers than with the present Governor who are coming to have a place in the inaugurations have intimated that they would esteem it a privilege to confer with the man whom they are to help introduce into office. It is understood that several of the new members of Congress will be here during the hurry and crush to talk matters over with the incoming chief.

Daily conferences are scheduled at the White House, and Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft will go over many questions of legislative importance and many others that are purely personal.

There are several social engagements which Mr. Taft has arranged when on the night following the day of inauguration he finishes his address to the Georgia military boys whose banquet he has invited to attend. It is possible that the native head will be willing to admit for once in his life that he is tired.

SUNDAY CIVIL BILL PASSED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—While considering the sundry civil appropriation bill, an amendment by Mr. Bartlett of Georgia, directing the Attorney-General to prosecute the United States Steel Corporation for absorbing the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company and others for the purpose of the pose, was ruled out of order on a point of order by Mr. Tawney, in the House today.

A practically similar amendment offered by Mr. Hitchcock of Nebraska was held to order in proper form, but was lost, 81 to 10.

The provision to pay the Catholic Church in Porto Rico $20,000 in settlement of the dispute between the church and the United States, was stricken out on a point of order by Mr. Garrett, Tennessee.

On another point by Mr. Douglas, Ohio, the parish authorizing proposition for raising the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, went out of the bill against the appeals of Mr. Sulzer, New York.

When the provision relating to the Isthmian Canal Commission was reached, an amendment by Mr. Fitzgerald, New Jersey, calling for a $10,000 salary of Secretary Bishop from $10,000 to $5000 per annum, was adopted. Mr. Fitzgerald said Mr. Bishop, was present on an $11,000 salary, a horse and carriage and a coachman, and declared $5000 salary was enough.

The clause authorizing an increase in the amount of Panama bonds from $10,000 to $160,000 under the act of June 28, 1902, went out on a point of order by Mr. Fitzgerald.

The bill was then passed.

FLINT AFTER FURNITURE COIN.

Senator Will Try to Get Ample Appropriation for Los Angeles Public Building.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Assistant Secretary Treasurer Beckman Winthrop has asked Senator Flint to secure restoration in the public buildings bill, if possible, of the item $1,021,000 for "furniture and fixtures" which was intended for all public buildings. The House cut this item to $900,000.

Winthrop says the item of $1,075,000 in the bill for completion of the Los Angeles public building will suffice for that purpose, and that the original sum for furniture would permit the Treasury Department to put furniture and fixtures in the Los Angeles building. It is possible that even with the reduced sum that might be done, but a $1,021,000 note in the public apartment desires to have the full sum allowed, and Flint will try to do this done.

FLINT HAS STEAMER BILL.

SIMILAR TO HOUSE MEASURE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Although there is no possibility of its passing at this session, Senator Flint, acting on the request or organizations in California, introduced a

YOUR PRESENCE REQUESTED.

FLINT'S HOUSE PARTY FOR ALL ANGELENOES.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON (D. C.) Feb. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Flint, after securing a number of guests from Los Angeles and more are arriving all the time. Before March 4th, from the present prospects, the Senator will have to put on the roof of his house to make room for all his friends, who will come to see the President inaugurated.

Among the Senator's guests from Los Angeles are: United States Marshals Leo Youngworth and wife; Frank Johnson, the produce merchant; W. P. Jeffries, the printer-politician; Samuel Ringier and wife; W. E. Hampton, wife and daughters; George B. Ellis and family.

ARMED GUARD FOR TRAINS.

Kentucky Road Considering Advisability of Checking Services Outlawry.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Feb. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President-elect Taft will return to Washington tomorrow morning to stay here probably until the extraordinary session of the Sixty-first Congress has closed its deliberations.

Mr. Taft will have a fairly adequate conception on his arrival of what the capital intends to do for him in the way of inaugural display. Flags are everywhere. Banners, streamers and signs in streams and in folds fall from nearly every Pennsylvania avenue window. The court of honor in front of the White House is completed, and festoons of electric lights cross and recross the avenue, every few yards. There are more bleacherlike grandstands than ever before were erected in Washington. The city intends to do the man a great honor, and the prayer of the populace is for fair weather.

Indications are that Mr. Taft will work harder during the five days he is awaiting the great event than he will during the entire term. He is known that appointments have been sought with the President-elect in greater numbers than with the present Governor who are coming to have a place in the inaugurations have intimated that they would esteem it a privilege to confer with the man whom they are to help introduce into office. It is understood that several of the new members of Congress will be here during the hurry and crush to talk matters over with the incoming chief.

Daily conferences are scheduled at the White House, and Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft will go over many questions of legislative importance and many others that are purely personal.

There are several social engagements which Mr. Taft has arranged when on the night following the day of inauguration he finishes his address to the Georgia military boys whose banquet he has invited to attend. It is possible that the native head will be willing to admit for once in his life that he is tired.

SUNDAY CIVIL BILL PASSED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Roosevelt has made an exception in favor of Senator Flint from the rule he has laid down not to appoint any more officers seekers to positions while he is still in the White House. Flint has succeeded in having credit given him in the Senate and has been granted a recess from the Senate Committee on Postoffices to attend the inauguration.

Amidst the cutbacks, the rates reduced are those on express and some freight rates, 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from Japan. Canned goods westbound from Colorado were reduced 15 cents to Cincinnati and Central Freight Association territory; leather, 10 cents; and tin scrap, 1 cent. The westbound rate on salmon waters was reduced 75 cents a reduction of 10 cents, on account of competition from

THE LATEST SPORTING NEWS, LOCAL AND TELEGRAPHIC.

SCANDAL!

WOLGAST ACCUSED OF ATTEMPTED FRAME-UP.

Referee Tommy Walsh Calls All Bets Off and Asserts Boxer Related to Him Story of What Was to Have "Come Off" — Bad Mix-up.

WOLGAST told me he was going to lose to Little on a foul and that I should not say anything about it and that there would be a suit of clothes and a piece of money in it for me.—Referee Tommy Walsh.

The whole story is a lie and I don't know what to make of it. I will kill Walsh before I get through with this.—Ad Wolgast.

Walsh told me of the affair just before the main event and I told him to call all bets off. I was leary tonight when I saw all the bets being made on Little; then Walsh told me the story.—Manager Baron Long of the Jeffries Club.

I don't know anything of the affair at all. I fought on my merits and was beaten.—Walter Little.

I don't believe the story. I know Wolgast had no money. I even staked some diamonds to bet on Ad.—Tom Jones, manager of Wolgast.

Charges by Referee Tommy Walsh of a "frame-up" by Ad Wolgast to lose to Little on a foul; denials by Wolgast that such charges are anything but base; and betting by Tom Jones, the manager of Wolgast, that his boy would beat Little, and a score of the left-over features of the Wolgast-Little fight last night at the Jeffries arena in the Vernon district, and in the face of the various assertions and denials by the interested parties the sporting class in general will have to pick out the particular angle of the situation that may fit the case.

Wolgast knocked out Little in the fourth round last night at the Jeffries arena and it was a surprising little battle after. Wolgast sent up Little on the clinches and clinched him, and after the first round of hooks and uppercuts rocked Little from his feet till the Chicago man, groggy and staggering from the stiff jolts, held on in the clinches and firmly stood when Wolgast sent him left to the sidewalk at the opening of the fourth round.

Little caused a laugh with a long overhand wallop to the kidneys, which was a surprise to the clinicians and the spectators.

Wolgast commanded the boys to fight after a short rest, and at the opening of the fifth round he sent Little with hooks to the face and fearful hammering on the kidneys that foretold the end a round in advance.

THE PRELIMINARIES. The first bout was preliminary between 16-year-old Walter Fisher and Frankie Sullivan proved, after all, that the most interesting bout of the card. Sullivan was too strong for the blond youngster and knocked his opponent out in the first round. When the bout was over, however, could hardly be called a knockout, for Fisher was simply too tired to keep up the pace.

The difference in age set aside the mill difference of years. Both boys are camera, are willing fighters and set a lively pace for five aggressive rounds.

Sullivan was at all times dominant and possessed a wicked left hook with which he worried the younger boxer. Fisher was clever and side-stepped Sullivan's swings repeatedly.

In the opening round Fisher easily won the first two rounds, but without getting a scratch in return. He poked Sullivan twice on the back drawing the crimson. In the second round the blond boxer kept up his advantage and with the crowd cheering encouragement, increased his pace and was able to keep up the pace.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count. Sullivan lifted his conqueror fighter to his corner, and as Fisher was led from the ring he was roundly applauded.

Ad Wolgast, considerably out-classed Al Fellows in the curtain raiser and knocked Al to the boards before the round was half over, Fellows rose to his feet and charged at every lead.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher on the kidneys in every clinch. He caught Fisher on the neck and ear several times with that left hook that had been so effective. The fight was even until the last, when Fisher began to falter and stalled till the bell brought the needed rest.

Sullivan lead the fight throughout the bout and was the more impressive at every lead. Sullivan landed the most blows, and in the clinches hammered Fisher on the kidneys severely.

The sixth round Fisher stronger than ever. He used his right hand to reach to advantage, sending in two stiff jolts to Sullivan's face. Sullivan slipped to the floor in a rush and Fisher earned the plaudits of the spectators by hitting his opponent to his head.

Fisher's spurt was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Sullivan's blow was momentary, however. Toward the end of the round he weakened rapidly, dropped his guard and hung on in the clinches. Sullivan saw his chance and started the gong sounded for the seventh. He rushed Fisher to his corner, smashed through his guard, and sent his left hook to the jaw, sending him sprawling over and took the count.

Al Fellows was too strong for Fisher, could deliver, and walloped Fisher Classified Liners.

Times Classified rates: the rate for inserting "Want" ads in the Daily Times Sunday issue 1/4c per word, each insertion; minimum charge 25c; except under existing classifications, minimum rate for which is 10c per word; minimum charge 25c covers "Society Meetings," "Personal," "Local Notices," and "Baths and Massages."

"Liners" (classified) advertisements for Sunday insertion received over the counter or by telephone after 12:30 o'clock must be sent to the office of the Times at 101 N. Spring St., Los Angeles, Calif., heading "Too Late to Classify."

Sunday real estate advertisements, to be classified properly, must be in the Times at least one hour before 12:30 o'clock Saturday night. Rates: 25c per word.

The Sunday circulation of the Times exceeds 77,000 copies, and more "liners" are regularly printed in its columns than in any other Los Angeles newspaper.

Telephone your want advertisements using up "The Times" any time of day or night and secure prompt and careful attention.

The Times cannot guarantee accuracy or assume responsibility for errors of any kind occurring in telephone advertisements.

THE TIMES will not be responsible for any damage or loss of services of any advertisement ordered for more than one week.

Advertisers should retain receipts given by The Times in payment for "liners," no mistakes can be rectified without them.

SPECIAL NOTICES

WIMES COOK BOOK, NO. 5, READY TODAY, and until the edition is exhausted, is placed in every grocery store in the city. It is the largest and most popular of the series issued by the Times.

Wimmes' recipes for hot Spanish and Mexican dishes and the hygiene department are big features of the Times Prime Cooking Column. Wimmes' books are generally from Southern California, but additional addresses may be had by mail to additional. Address THE TIMES, Los Angeles, Calif.

WIMES REAL ESTATE LINERS— Classified real estate advertisements for insertion in THE TIMES are now being accepted. They will be inserted at 12:30 o'clock Saturday night. Other "want" advertisements for real estate may be sent to the counter until 11:30 p.m.

WANTED—MARRIED OR SINGLE MAN for orange and walnut ranch on land to be expanded; dry ground, good water and index furnishing goods and notions; to be located in San Joaquin Valley. Address: M. H. NATAL, 1020 S. Olive St., care of Hotel Alexandria, between 2 and 4 p.m., on Friday and Saturday.

WANTED—EMPLOYMENT AGENCY, 49 W. Hill St., Tel. 215-1200, open 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. COOKS, WAITERS, PORTERS, etc.

WANTED—TRAVELER FOR WHOLESALE dry goods, grocery, hardware, and index furnishing goods and notions; to be located in San Joaquin Valley. Address: M. H. NATAL, 1020 S. Olive St., care of Hotel Alexandria, between 2 and 4 p.m., on Friday and Saturday.

WANTED—ATTORNEY for real estate.

DANGEROUS DEVILS.
THE WARPATH OF GERONIMO.

When His Bronco Apaches
Were in Glory.

Stirring Pursuits of Crafty Tribe of Savages.

Worst Indians That Defied
the Government.

SECOND CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.
DENVER, Feb. 22.—When Chief Geronimo died in Oklahoma recently, there were few of his old-time white enemies left to indulge in reminiscences concerning the craftiest and most cruel redskin that ever took the war trail. Gen. Crook and Wilcox, who played a bloody game of hide and seek with Geronimo and his "Bronco" Apaches (Geronimo being Spanish for "bad") are dead, as is Lawton, who, under Gen. Miles, arranged with Geronimo on the general surrender that put the southwest on a peace footing just twenty years ago.

One of the scouts instrumental in tracking Geronimo at last accounts was Captain Lawton's White Mountain Apache. This is Michel Free, one of the greatest Indian fighters and most unique characters that ever graced the frontier. Chief of Scouts Sieber, who hung on Geronimo's trail and had many "peace talks" as well as "war engagements" with the wily savage, never heard of the snatching of his life by that other "bronco" Apache known as Apache Kid—an Indian, by the way, who had been brought up and most kindly treated by Sieber himself. Sieber, who was chief of scouts when Geronimo was captured, is dead, though fortunately Horn has left an account of his adventures in the form of an autobiography published through his friend John C. Coble, a prominent cattleman of Cheyenne, Wyo.

Tom Horn has shed much light on Geronimo's conduct. He was a scout from his early boyhood, and lived near the San Carlos Reservation, talking Apache like one of Geronimo's own. He went trail along as interpreter when Chief of Scouts Sieber, Gen. Crook and others had conferences with Geronimo. He even went to Geronimo's camp in Northern Mexico, and interpreted one of Crook's conferences with Geronimo, Sieber and Horn were summoned to the Apache camp and advised the camp council.

At that time Sieber's significant words to the young interpreter were: "Take your knife, Tom; stand while you interpret; forget that you may not live one minute, and think only of the talk."

He who was instrumental, more than any other single individual, in instilling a wholesome respect for white warriors into Geronimo's brain, was Sieber.

"According to Horn, Geronimo 'had more respect for the scouts' than for any man in the world.'

He was a born Indian fighter, having spent much of his life among the Apaches. He knew the plains of Arizona and Northern New Mexico as an open book, and Geronimo could not shake off the fear of the commanders he was discouraged and at sea, which was often the case. Sieber was cheerful, hopeful, and courageous.

The "serve" of the scouts who were virtually in charge of the campaigns against Geronimo, was something they wanted to do, nothing they wanted not to do. Geronimo's desire to live awhile on the San Carlos Reservation, until he had gathered sufficient ammunition for his campaign, and then he would flee to the mountains. If he had not grown too hot, after he had burned and pillaged awhile in Arizona and New Mexico, he would retreat across the Colorado into the mountains of Northern Mexico. At that time there was no treaty allowing our troops to pursue Indians into Mexico. As far as the Apache soldiers, the Apache had the utmost contempt for them, always claiming that a hundred Apache squaws could subdue a thousand Mexicans.

On one occasion, in his camp, Geronimo had ridden across the border, and sent word to Gen. Wilcox, department commander, at the time that he was in touch with a group of emissaries. Sieber said he would go, and selected young Tom Horn as his interpreter. They started from San Carlos, and the Apaches thought they would reach the designated place by the full of the moon. They were accompanied by Murielida Grisolia, a Mexican woman, who had been raised by the Name and Geronimo, wife of Chiricahua. They followed San Bernardino Creek from its head to its junction with the Navajo River, in Mexico. At this river, as they were watering their horses, they saw an Indian standing on the bank, leaning on his gun and watching them. He proved to be Geronimo's emissary, an Indian named Hal-say—one of the worst of the "bronco" band.

Apache Kid, second only to Geronimo
"Bronco" Apache.

"He was the first hostile Indian I ever looked the brave that he was. Tall, slender and smiling, he stood there looking as unconcerned as you please. He was dressed in a breech cloth and a handsome pair of moccasins. For ornaments he wore a belt full of cartridges, with a long revolver tucked in it. As he stood there now smiling good-harmanly and nonchalantly, he did not seem to be the bad man Sieber said he was. Later Hal-say met death at the hands of an old man in Pedro's band."

A FINE FIGURE.

Hal-say told the scouts where Geronimo was waiting, and then he remained behind to see that no soldiers followed the white emissaries. The scouts pushed on into the mountains, and Geronimo's camp. The squaws crowded about and made the scouts comfortable, and next morning all were full of cartridges, with a long revolver tucked in it. As he stood there now smiling good-harmanly and nonchalantly, he did not seem to be the bad man Sieber said he was. Later Hal-say met death at the hands of an old man in Pedro's band."

"Certainly a grand looking war chief!

Geronimo,
on ground at left, and Gen. Crook in helmet at right, in conference.

Geronimo was that morning seen there talking to Sieber; six feet tall and magnificently proportioned, and his motions graceful and easy. He had an amiable, smiling face, but when he turned and looked at a person his eyes were so sharp and piercing that they seemed to see through him. Anyhow that was how they looked to me, but I was a little shaky."

According to Horn, Geronimo "had more respect for the scouts' than for any man in the world." He told of the wrongs done him by the agent and the soldiers and the White Mountain Apaches. He wanted to go back to the reservation; he wanted to have to have a couple of Mexicans to make him, and he wanted to be allowed to get his gun and his ammunitions. He wanted to give him his gun and the ammunitions he could use. He wanted the clothes for the women and shoes for the children, and the snow on the ground, and any and everything he ever heard of he wanted. Geronimo was the biggest chief and the best talker and the biggest liar in the world, but there was no one knew this better than Sieber."

The reply of the chief of scouts to Geronimo's demands was characteristic. Sieber said he had looked carefully at the distant mountains. Then he turned to Geronimo and said: "You have asked for everything that I know about except to have the mountains to the north of the American country for you to live in, and I will give you till sundown to talk to your people and see if you are entitled to those things. If you are entitled to them, by your conduct, I have everything else you have asked for, then you are entitled to those mountains."

After these words Sieber turned on his heel and stalked away out of the council—courageous thing for a man to do, practically alone in the camp of bloodthirsty savages that ever took to the warpath. But Sieber's bluff was well planned, for Geronimo called another council, and was more than willing to meet him. He was partied, after Sieber had told Geronimo that the white soldiers would eventually capture or kill him, and he was accompanied by Murielida Grisolia, a Mexican woman, who had been raised by the Name and Geronimo, wife of Chiricahua. They followed San Bernardino Creek from its head to its junction with the Navajo River, in Mexico. At this river, as they were watering their horses, they saw an Indian standing on the bank, leaning on his gun and watching them. He

ON THE ROCKS.

CUTTER MOHAWK IN PERIL IN HELL GATE.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The United States revenue cutter Mohawk, bound from New London for Springfield, ran on the rocks in Hell Gate today, and late tonight was still hard aground, despite the efforts of tugs to move her.

The cutter's bow is resting on the edge of the rocks, which it is feared will tear a hole in the ship's bottom. The wireless telegraph brought news that the Mohawk is leaking badly, but the pumps are keeping ahead of the flow. Three powerful tugs are standing by.

An effort will probably be made early tomorrow at high tide to float the vessel, but she is in a bad position and the chances are unfavorable.

At the Baby Show.

Jack Parsons, above, handsome blonde boy, and Joseph F. Sapp, fat test child under a year old.

PRIZE WINNERS.

Babies Help Building Fund of Church and Incidentally Are Awarded Honor and Things.

Fifty-three babies helped with their smiles, coos and infant loveliness, to add a mite to the building fund of the Vermont Square Methodist Episcopal Church, with a baby show in the church yesterday afternoon.

Fifteen first and second prizes were offered for different classes of babies, and the judges, relatives of the expectant mothers, gave the price of admission to see the honor conferred.

Jack Parsons, captured the prize offered for the handsomest chap of 4 years; he is the son of Mrs. L. M. Parsons.

Grace Delong was awarded the prize for the prettiest girl of 4 years, and Paul Maliby Sapp was judged the finest two-year-old boy at the show.

Dixie Orr, captured the second prize, the four-year-old girl's class.

Joseph C. Hollingsworth was announced the winner in the six months old class for boys, and Corinne Cooper the winner in this class for girls. Ross Morris got the prize offered for the finest boy under two years. John Herbert Herr receiving the second prize in this class, Callicle Heffernan received the girl's prize in this class, and Wilma Smith got the third.

James E. Wilson got the first prize as the prettiest red-headed baby, and Walter Jess Coles received the second. George and Anna, the five-month-old twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Harald, captured the prize offered for twins. Dorothy Dell Callicle, the smallest baby one year old, was given a present by Mrs. J. F. Sapp. Dr. and Mrs. Willis M. Sapp, was awarded a fifty-pound sack of flour, for being the fattest baby under one year old.

The church was prettily decorated in blue, black and white in honor of the birthday of the infant.

The refreshment booths were made to represent baby cribs.

The judges of the show were Misses A. L. Lamb, A. C. Cawley, Mrs. S. C. Smith. The ladies in charge of the entertainment were Misses H. W. Cole, C. H. Cook, M. E. Riley, J. P. Robertson, A. J. Hawley and W. J. Parsons.

WHOLLY BETWEEN OURSELVES

BY MARSHALL CUSHING.

The story that they tell in Washington about the absorption of Tennessee Coal and Iron by the United States Steel Corporation has hit it big at the very beginning—that Edward the New York and Paris, the financial agent of James J. Hill in Europe, had a small balance of million dollars, more or less, with Moore & Schley, the New York bankers, but by the middle of last year, when the same time came, Mr. Schley, whose pool controlling Tennessee Coal and Iron had borrowed heavily on the stock, was up against it to hold on.

In due time he approached J. P. Morgan, and reached him, probably through Lewis Cass Ladewig, as Mr. Perkins has said. Mr. Morgan, according to the Washington story, and with the same result, as in the case of Napoleon. See this man with his white mustache, his shock of curly white hair, his cervical plug hat, and his other modes of dress, and you would take him for a preacher. Possibly no living man pursues his objects more indefatigably (or shall I say, relentlessly) than he. One of his most intimate friends in business declares that a year has passed without a word in reference to business between them. Cromwell does not like to be around with single men, except the thing immediately before him. The Panama proposition was rather long drawn out for a treatment, literally of this kind, but this was not the case with Mr. Morgan and his party, nothing being done but a hurried session of the "comrades" at 25 per cent. a day. The senior member of the firm, Mr. Morgan, gave Schley $400,000, or five per cent.

The darky scratched his head reflectively, and finally suggested:

"Den mebbe it's had a relapse!"—(Harper's Weekly.)

A Votary of the Pipe.

Greatest among the votaries of the pipe was Charles Lamb. He smoked furiously, incessantly—smoked with an air that defied the world. Dr. Park, who watched him with amazement, ventured to ask him what he was had acquired such a marvelous power. "To tell the truth," said Lamb, "I have some sort of oil extract."

He was always on the point of giving up tobacco, but he never quite succeeded. Even as late as 1827, when he lay on his deathbed, he had abandoned the habit, he said, that though an extinct volcano, he still emitted occasional puffs.—[Exchange.]

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

GIVES UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION.

Best Remedy in the Market For Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough—It Always Cures
And Is Pleasant and Safe to Take.

"I never had a medicine in my store as great universal satisfaction as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. M. Shore, of Rochester, Ind. "It is the best remedy today on the market for croup, colds and whooping cough. One of my lady customers told me recently that since she has been using it she has had no need of a doctor. In case of a severe attack of croup a physician will usually call twice, and perhaps half a dozen times in a severe and long protracted attack of whooping cough in pneumonia; it is often necessary that he calls once or twice a day for a week or two. All of this trouble and expense may be saved by the judicious use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup and when given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. Pneumonia can also be prevented by this remedy. This fact has been known for many years, in which this remedy has been in general use, no case of a cold or attack of the grip has ever resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, as far as we have knowledge of. It will call for a little forethought and by doing the right thing at the right time, all danger and expense may be avoided. This remedy is guaranteed and if not as stated it will not cost you a cent."

Syndicate, however, if the Wall Street oracles may be believed, is wholly a Morgan affair. Gentlemen having large cash balances for investment join with Morgan in anything he wants done. If they lose, which hardly ever has been known to happen—they pocket their losses without a murmur, and if they win, they win. These gentlemen have little but a balance of four million dollars, like Edward Tuck's. It saturates the person with the very atmosphere of wealth to pass the Clevenger house. A. C. Hepburn is in control of the currency and the bank president, once opened an account for depositor who stated at the outset, no doubt in considerable trepidation and concern, that he might be unable to pay his debts, that he should only have a small balance usually, $100,000, more or less.

The faithful Leob—William, Junior, secretary to the President—has been mentioned for nearly every place in the cabinet of Mr. Taft, and now they have almost gone up and down the list among the positions held by the members of the Cabinet. There is little doubt that Mr. Loeb expected at one time, but probably does not now expect to be a cabinet officer. When the Secretary of the Treasury, the present holder of one of the traction systems in Washington, he decided not to come through, preferring, all things considered, to be merely a member of the Executive branch of his department.

Jack Parsons, captured the prize offered for the handsomest chap of 4 years; he is the son of Mrs. L. M. Parsons.

Grace Delong was awarded the prize for the prettiest girl of 4 years, and Paul Maliby Sapp was judged the finest two-year-old boy at the show.

Dixie Orr, captured the second prize, the four-year-old girl's class.

Joseph C. Hollingsworth was announced the winner in the six months old class for boys, and Corinne Cooper the winner in this class for girls.

Ross Morris got the prize offered for the finest boy under two years. John Herbert Herr receiving the second prize in this class, Callicle Heffernan received the girl's prize in this class, and Wilma Smith got the third.

LOS ANGELES TIMES

Coupon for Out-of-Town Readers

High Art Booklet Distribution

This coupon is good for one of the High Art booklets which are sent from The Times office with 10 cents.

A separate coupon is required for each booklet desired.

High Art Color Books

Embracing the World's greatest pictures and poems. Exquisitely bound and printed in gold and colors.

...Ten Cents Each, Instead of Fifty-Cents.
At The Times Office

Similar books have been imported from Germany and at 50c each. These beautiful books are printed by America's greatest color printing establishment and are of great value not only from an educational standpoint, but have a lasting intrinsic value.

1-16
of Actual Size

SPECIMEN FEATURES

PICTURES BY Raphael Marville
Botticelli
Carrie Dolce
Lippe
Sanzio
Bellini

Text in black letter Old English, illuminated initials, and gold decorations, full page color plates.

While They Last, 10c Each
CLIP COUPON IN TODAY'S TIMES

Coupon cut from The Times must be presented with purchase price.

COUPON FOR CITY READERS

High Art Booklet Distribution

This coupon is good for one of the High Art booklets which are sent from The Times office with 10 cents.

A separate coupon is required for each booklet desired.

Coupons cut from The Times must be presented with purchase price.

LOS ANGELES TIMES

Coupon for Out-of-Town Readers

High Art Booklet Distribution

This coupon is good for one of the High Art booklets which are sent from The Times office with 10 cents.

A separate coupon is required for each booklet desired.

JOSEPH BALL SECURITY BUILDING

GOVERNMENT, MUNICIPAL, CORPORATION BONDS AND OTHER INVESTMENT SECURITIES

Member Los Angeles Stock Exchange Commission orders for the purchase of stocks and bonds executed information, daily quotations and prices. I solicit your orders.

WEATHERTEMPERATURES.

	M	N	S	E
New York	34	26	27	28
Cincinnati	35	28	27	28
Pittsburgh	35	28	27	28
Kansas City	35	28	27	28
Jacksonville	35	28	27	28
Baltimore	35	28	27	28
Philadelphia	35	28	27	28
St. Louis	35	28	27	28
Seattle	35	28	27	28
Portland	35	28	27	28
San Francisco	35	28	27	28
Los Angeles	35	28	27	28

* In for day before yesterday.
The mean of the two days.

Forecast and Report.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU
Feb. 27.—Tuesday. A southerly wind, 10 miles. At 8 o'clock registered 30.80; at 5 p.m., 30.80.

Relative humidity, 75 per cent. Wind, 5 miles.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

Wind, 5 miles.

Cloudiness, 50 per cent.

Temperature, 50°. Rainfall, 45 mm.

Wednesday rain has ceased to fall.

Humidity reduced to 60 per cent.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

The possum-badgers!

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Death of Mrs. Lewis. Miss M. K. Lewis received news of the death of her mother, Mrs. Deery Lewis at Bellefonte, Pa., yesterday. Mrs. Lewis will be buried at Jamestown, N. Y., tomorrow.

The City beautified.

At the Club tomorrow papers on "The City Beautiful" will be read by Charles Mulford Robinson or New York, the civic architect who prepared the plan for the beautification of Los Angeles, and W. E. Elkins, chairman of the Municipal Art Commission.

School of Stenography.

W. L. Mason, recently of New York, has been secured by the Y.M.C.A. as principal of its school of shorthand. He comes with the highest recommendations and it is expected that the department of the educational work will become one of the most popular in the association.

Canadian Club Party.

The Canadian Club will give an entertainment and dance in Lincoln Hall Wednesday evening. There will be a programme of music and a negro sketch by Ben Black and Chet Whiteman, at the conclusion of which dancing and cards will be enjoyed.

Y.M.C.A. Lecture Course.

The next number of the Y.M.C.A. lecture course will be given on Saturday, consisting of a concert by the Colonial Saxophone and Male Quartet, assisted by Miss Victoria Lynn, reader. Two other entertainments will follow. Dr. Van Cott, author, humorist, March 21; Elizabeth Du Barry Gil, harpist, reader and vocalist, April 6.

Funeral of Eugene Germain.

The funeral of the late Eugene Germain was held yesterday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. H. S. Hart. Religious services were conducted at the Rosedale Cemetery, prior to incineration of the body. Scottish Rite ceremonies were conducted by theasonic fraternity. Mrs. Germain is at present en route home from Europe.

Murphy Concert Tonight.

A concert will be given in Simpson Auditorium tonight for the benefit of the local branch of the Society of William Murphy. The following persons will take part in the programme: Mattie Ladd Evans, Miss Grace James, Frances Murphy Jr., Mrs. L. M. Maximilian, Edward J. Ryan, Miss Barbara G. Farmer, William E. Strobridge, Mrs. Fred Dorn, Ricardo Lucchesi, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cliff Lott. The general price of admission is 25 cents.

North Docks Plan.

The North Docks Society of Southern California held a picnic at Eastlake Park yesterday, which was attended by a large number of tourists as well as hundreds of former residents of the city. The picnic was organized by Edward Whittemore, John A. Sorley of Grand Forks; E. R. Kennedy and W. A. Bentley; Miss Erna White and Mrs. W. F. Williams; "The Little Boy"; Miss Lucille Stearns; "The Star Spangled Banner." The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Edward Whittemore; vice-president, George C. Packham; R. E. Kennedy, secretary-treasurer; A. M. Gamble.

Capt. Fries on Our Harbor.

Capt. Amos A. Fries, engineer in charge of Government work at San Pedro Harbor, will address the Academy of Sciences at Biltmore Hall on Monday evening. His subject, "San Pedro Harbor: Present and Future," will embrace a view of the commercial possibilities and proposed fortifications of the harbor, and the method of developing the shipping interest of the three cities of San Pedro, Wilmington, and Long Beach, in connection with the consolidation of the two cities with Los Angeles.

As $400,000 has been appropriated for fortifications and a government steamship line will probably be established giving a direct service from San Pedro via the Panama rail road to New York, the subject of Capt. Fries' lecture will be one of great interest to the people of Los Angeles.

BREVITIES.

Bomber the slogan: "Buy and Boost Home Products." For daily reference see page 11, Part II. The Times, containing list of wide-awake manufacturers under the heading "Made in Southern California." You will find there are manufacturers of necessities and luxuries here—manufacturers of food, clothing, furniture, for the home, the factory, the office and the trade. Buy them! They are none better. Try them! There are none better. Buy and Boost and keep your money at home where it will do you and yours the most good!

Times' Cook Book No. 3 ready today, and until the edition is exhausted, is placed on sale the largest, most substantial and comprehensive cook book of the series issued by The Times. The $15 recipes for non-Spanish and Mexican dishes and the "vegetable garden" are big attractions of the publication. The recipes, brought to you by The Times' prize cooking contest, are generally from Southern California housewives and noted cooks. Price 25 cents; plus 5 cents additional. Address: The Times, Los Angeles.

The W. E. Cummings Shoe Co. has retired from the retail shoe trade, at 121 S. Broadway, A. A. Hamilton & Sons at 211 S. Broadway, having sold his entire stock at a very low price and are now selling the stock at 251 S. Broadway. The Cummings Shoe Co. standard was to handle nothing but the best goods made, and for many days of sale is the time for snags. Sale on today at 251 S. Broadway. Every pair is cut in price. Store is leased.

Thousands of garments, fine sets, grates, sparkguards, retailed at wholesale prices. J. W. Frey's Mantel House, cor. 12th and Los Angeles stas.

Wrestling, Fighting, Boxers' Company will give special law prices on choice meats this week. 120 S. Main.

Natick House, all meals 25c, except Sunday eve, chicken dinner, 35c; 21 meals $5. Hart Bros. Props.

Dogs, splendid full-blooded bulldogs, fox terriers, spaniels and first-class watch dogs, may be procured at Animal Shelter (City Pound); Ninth and Santa Fe Avenue, by the simple payment of the regular license fee of $2.

Dr. Frank L. Howard, dentist, emeritus to 218 Exchange Bldgs., Phone A678.

For best eye glasses see Logan.

IT DOES 'EM GOOD.

Lawyers Flash Back and Forth in Tilt in Court and Get Gentle Rebuke.

The damage suit of Phillips against the Santa Fe Railroad Company, on trial in the United States Circuit Court yesterday, was adjourned for a short time between opposing counsel. Joseph Scott, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, and Attorney Van Cott for the defense, engaged in one little by-play that called for a gentle rebuke that called for a gentle rebuke by the court.

Mr. Van Cott had taken occasion to call attention to some documents used by the plaintiff's counsel. When he closed, Attorney Scott paused for a moment before going on with his examination of a witness.

"I am sorry to get my breath," he said, evidently referring to the necessity of "taking time out" after the cross-examination for the defense.

"You must have poor constitution," interjected Mr. Van Cott.

"That may be so," was the quick retort, "but at any rate, I haven't got time."

The lawyer's rebuke was quickly silenced by the bailiff.

The plaintiff was suing to recover $60,000 for the death of E. C. Phillips, his son, a young attorney.

He was killed as the result of the explosion of an engine boiler, August 16, 1907.

The plaintiff claimed the accident was due to carelessness in the use of a motive crown plate.

The case was not concluded at adjournment and will be finished Monday.

Another jury in the same court brought in a verdict for the defendant in the case of Mary O'Connell against the Santa Fe Railroad Company. She sought to recover damages for the loss of her husband in an accident on the Santa Fe between Los Angeles and San Diego.

DUCK'S SUIT TRANSFERRED.

The damage suit of Elmer Duck against the California Oil Fields, Limited, was transferred from the Superior Court of Fresno, yesterday, to the United States Circuit Court, the defendant being the same.

Duck sought to recover $15,000 damages for injuries received while in the employ of the defendant near Coalinga.

He claims that the machinery was defective.

STANDARD OIL JURY.

Two men chosen, but May Be Re-examined Before Finally Sworn in.

INT'L DIRECTIVE TO THE TIMES!

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—The jury in the retrial of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, for alleged rebating, was completed tentatively today, but both the government and the defendant corporation reserved the right to re-examine the men in the jury box Monday.

Of the twelve selected, three are retired farmers and the others are small merchants. Five are Chicago men. Eighteen men were examined.

LAWN SHELL CAPS.

for infants and babies; prettily shirred, embroidered, lace and ribbon trimmed, at 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50 up.

"Siegel's for Women's and Children's Wear"

Entire Stock of Men's Clothing 1-2 Price

VITAL RECORD

BIRTHS, DEATHS, MARRIAGES, DIVORCE

Deaths

KLEIN. To the wife of Julius S. Klein, No. 98 South Union Avenue, on Feb. 18, son, CHESTER. To the wife of George Hart Hartley, February 14, a son, Kenneth Hart.

Deaths

BROWN. At her late home, 1825 Magnolia Street, City Center, Los Angeles, Lowell Brown, dearly beloved daughter of Robert A. and Anna T. Brown, and sister of Mrs. Paul R. Coler of Globe, Arizona.

McKEE. Mrs. Anna T. Brown, at the age of 80, died Saturday, Feb. 27, at 2 p.m.

BELL. Mrs. Pauline F. Bell, 25 years. Funeral at Bresne Bros. Chapel, 25 S. Figueroa.

CORNELL. At 119 N. Utah, Feb. 25, 1907, Joseph Cornell, aged 65 years. Remained at the First Presbyterian Mission, 15th st., between Main and Broadway, Saturday at 2 o'clock, friends invited.

KIDSON. Richard Kidson, aged 81 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles. Son of Captain Richard Kidson, who died at 80.

COHEN. Richard Cohen, aged 65 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

JOHNSON. Richard Johnson, aged 65 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

ROSE. Mrs. Rose, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WHITE. Mrs. White, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILLIAMS. Mrs. Williams, 85 years, died Saturday morning at 2500 N. Highland, Los Angeles.

WILL

Up to $2.00
Hand Bags 59c

Just 500 of them. The pick of New York market. A great many leather lined, and all next coin purses to match. Sizes in the lot.

For a quick sale..... 59

Extra Specials in Men's Furnishing
Every Item at a Decided SavingN.B. Blackstone Co.
DRY GOODSBetween
Third and Fourth Sts.

$1.25 FOR LINGERIE WAISTS WORTH

$1.50.

DAINTILY MADE WAISTS OF FINE WHITE LAWN, TASTEFULLY DECORATED WITH LACES AND EMBROIDERIES.

SEVERAL DISTINCTIVELY LATE SPRING

STYLES AT $1.25

WORTH REGULARLY $1.50.
Second Floor

"ONYX" HOSE 3 FOR $1.00.

WOMEN'S FINE LISLE THREADS IN LACE ANKLE EFFECTS. VARIETY OF DESIGNS TO SELECT FROM.

TANS AND BLACK. 3 PAIRS FOR $1.00 OR

35c PAIR.

CHILDREN'S SILK LISLE HOSE 25c.

FINE RIBBED SILK LISLE STOCKINGS IN THE NEW TANS AND BLACK. SPLENID 25c VALUE AT 25c PAIR.
Main Floor

A NEW LINE OF ANTHONY BAGS.

THE MOST COMMODOUS, CONVENIENT AND SERVICEABLE SHOPPING BAG MADE—MOST POPULAR, TOO.

COLORS OR BLACK; ALL SIZES.

PRICES $1.25 TO $8.50.

THE MOST POPULAR STYLE AND SIZE IS THE ANTHONY WE SELL AT $1.25

GENUINE ANTHONY COLLAR BAGS $1.75

Main Floor

35c 3 For $1.00

TO MAKE ROOM FOR THE SUMMER WASH GOODS WE WILL CLOSE OUT TODAY TWO ENTIRE LINES OF FLANNELETTES AT ACTUAL BARGAIN PRICES:

27-inch Fancy Flannelettes. Regularly sold at 15c, at yard..... 10c

34-inch Fancy Flannelettes. Regularly sold at 16 2-3c, at yard..... 10c

Pinks, light blues, reds, tans, greens, etc.

Main Floor

CHILDREN'S NEW WASH DRESSES.

ADVANCE SPRING STYLES MADE OF GINGHAM, CHAMBRAY AND REP. KILLET SKIRTS, PLAITED WAIST, PIPING, BUTTONS AND EMBROIDERY TRIMMINGS.

TO 14-YEAR, SIZES, PRICED $3.00 to $10.00

Main Floor

New Victor Records
The March Issue
Goes on Sale TodayThere are some unusually good things in the Victor list of records for March. Of primary importance is the return of Mrs. Melba with three records, including the beautiful ballad, "Ye Banks and Ye Braes o' Bonnie Doon." Evan Williams' "Rudolph's Narrative" (La Boheme) is the finest record yet made by this superb singer. Marie Gay, the new Metropolitan Carmen, sings two selections from the opera. The new issue of several hundred double-face records promises to be very interesting this month; many are popular hits. Call or write for Bulletin giving sizes and prices. March records on sale today.Prices on VICTOR RECORDSDouble Face, with record on both sides, 10 in. 75c. 12 in. $1.25.
Single Face, with record on one side, 10 in. 60c. 12 in. $1.00.
Red Seal, ranging from $1 to $7 each.The March Edison Records Are Now on Sale

The General Shortage on

Victor-Victrolas Has Not Affected Our Stock

While there is a great shortage all over the country, Victrolas are still available to make immediate deliveries. We were fortunate in securing a large shipment before the demand depended on the Victor Co.'s stock. Victor-Victrolas at $200. Terms.

The Victor Co. announced that the Louis XV. gold mounted Victor-Victrolas will be discontinued. We have only one of this style in stock. If you are interested, come in once as this model will not be duplicated. Price $250.

The ordinary selection All Day greatest values in fine leather large size and in one of the best of leathers comprising auto and imported morocco or lined and fitted with col-umnings.

.00

Always come to us—EXCLUSIVE VICTOR AND EDISON DEALERS.

Geo. J. Birkel Company

Steinway, Caledonian and Victor Dealers

345-7 So. Spring Street

Chas Levy & Son

Tailors and Designers

448 S. Spring

LEVY'S Derby Suit is the smartest suit for young men produced in Los Angeles. The idea of the Derby is a loose, easy fitting suit that hangs perfectly and embodies the smart lines, the correct style, the perfect finish, that are the result of the tailor's skill. Broad, big shoulders—coat slightly flaring at the skirt—straight or peg trousers with narrow English roll cuffs—there's the model. We design it to perfection, and give it the touch that makes it individually yours. New fabrics here now—chosen especially for Derby Suits. Come in and have a look.

Chicago Je

Gas Range

511 UPWARD
CANFIELD HARDWARE
537-9 South Broadway

DRIN Mission Unic FOR HEALTHS AT DRUGSTORE

It will pay you to KNOW US

Sens & Haller

Wearers for Particular People.

Christopher's 241 South Spring Street

(Continued on Third Page.)

Los Angeles Daily Times

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 27, 1909.

California del Sur.

CITY AND COUNTRY

On All News Stands
Trains and Streets, 5 CENTS.

PATHETIC.

BOY REPROVED
ENDS HIS LIFE.Teacher's Note to Father
Causes Tragedy.Highly Sensitive Lad Sends Bullet Through Brain.Parents' Grief Pitiful, but They Blame no One.Mrs. E. B. Jones, who died last night at the age of one hundred and five years.

TO LIFE ETERNAL.

A T GREAT AGE
FALLS ASLEEP.*PASSING OF WOMAN IN HUNDRED AND FIFTH YEAR.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brogett Jones to Be Buried in San Gabriel Valley, Where She Lived Long on Famous "Sunny Slope" Ranch—Stirring Early Experiences.

Last evening Mrs. Elizabeth Brogett Jones, who first saw the light of day 103 years ago in Oxford, Green county, N. Y., breathed her last in Los Angeles as quietly as a babe falling asleep on its mother's breast.

She retained her faculties to the last, though for four years she had been confined to her bed, and her mind was a mental restorer of the body's health. She was a woman of mature years when she crossed the plains with her family, in 1857, and suffered hardships which included a fierce fight with Mohave Indians in the neighborhood of the Colorado River. In this desperate encounter with an overwhelming number of redskins she was severely wounded with a poisoned arrow.

While the case was in litigation, Judge Moss was forced to employ a staff of four clerks to handle the correspondence. Letters arrived from every part of the civilized and uncivilized world of the globe. Up to the time of settlement they reached the astounding total of 15,000. Those received since bring the grand total up to 18,000, with more expected to come.

When the news went out that an old man named Charles Hill had died in this city and left a fortune of $142,000 cash, the world made for the next year brought news of some other Charles Hill, who had not been heard of for years, or some Hill of another name. Charles Hill, somebody else, who had not been heard of late, and the writer always declared themselves the heir apparent to the money—providing the missing person was the one they mentioned.

This so-called Charles Hill, other Hills and Charles' could have disappeared within the fifty years prior to the death of Salem Charles, seems almost incredible, but it must be true, because Judge Moss has had the letters telling all about this horde of missing men.

Many of these letters are written by foreign visitors to America, and it kept one of the clerks busy finding interpreters who could unravel some of the communications.

The most remarkable among the letters was one from a man who had come from Tibet. This letter, locked in a case, had not been absolutely exclusive, for it contains a man who can write English and who read a part of an American paper telling all about the life of Charles Hill. He also claimed relationship and wanted some of the money.

GOOD STAMPS WASTED.

The most persistent of all writers was James Dodd of Cairo, Ill. James had a peculiar writing habit. The first few lines of his communication were legible, but after that his writing became an unintelligible scrawl. He wrote an average of two letters a week for four years, and then Judge Moss declined to account for him, and he did not dare to inquire. Dodd, and he has been writing, now and then, ever since. But in one thing Dodd was like all the other writers, he wanted some of the money.

This great case cost a fortune to settle, as Hill had to be traced through all of his wanderings over the United States. After an even period of forty years, of the $142,000, only $56,000 remained to be divided among the heirs. Among the principal expenses of attorney fees were $5000 for detection, $6000 for the estate while in litigation, $5000 inheritance tax and about $5000 paid to attorneys in other parts of the country to defend the claimants needed to prove the claims of fair heirs.

The principal expense, however, resulted from the contest of the will, which was taken by the court to determine who would inherit the estate.

The will was signed by the testator, John T. Miller, Mayor of Seattle, and Tacoma.

Among the "Boosters" from the North.

John T. Miller, Mayor of Seattle
D. A. Hodges, Director-General of ExpositionSTRENUOUS.
WAVES GUN TO WIN WEDDING?

BUT MUCH-SOUGHT MAN CAUSES GIRL'S ARREST.

After Attempting Suicide at Long Beach, Young Woman Enters Office of Him She Loves and Demands His Hand, or Life, It Is Alleged. Claims Only Casual Acquaintance.

Miss Enza Ryan of Long Beach, who weeks ago attempted to commit suicide in a drug store or that city, after as she alleged, she had been wronged and then jilted by James Alexander, an insurance broker of the Fay Building, Los Angeles, was arrested last night at Long Beach, on his complaint that she had threatened to kill him.

Alexander told Justice Summersfield, who issued the warrant, that the young woman entered his office, flourished a revolver and declared that he must marry her or she would have his life.

The plaintiff asserted that he had on a casual acquaintance of a few weeks with Miss Ryan, but she insisted, when she tried to die, that he proposed to her and was accepted, but decided that he did not care to wed her.

Alexander said yesterday: "The girl must be insane. I only heard her slightly, and never had the least intention to wed her. I am sure she did not discuss such a thing with me. I have endeavored during the last month or so to have her leave me alone, but she continued to come to the office, and sent bouquets, etc."

"About three weeks ago she came in and displayed a revolver, but it was taken from her by one of my assistants. Shortly afterward she again came in and again displayed a revolver. She was taken from her, and again a revolver threatened my life. And I was compelled to take steps to have her put away. I firmly believe that the girl is insane, or, at least, a trifle unbalanced."

In default of $500 bail, Miss Ryan is in the County Jail. Last night she engaged Attorney George W. Morrison as counsel, and refused to discuss her case with him, according to him.

Friends of Miss Ryan say, however, that she has been wronged by Alexander and made several attempts to have Alexander right her in the eyes of the world, but without success.

The first Los Angeles man to be asked for by the coroner of Tacoma, Wash., Frank Wiggins, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, "We have all heard of your enterprising secretary," said he, "and being a booster myself, I am anxious to meet him."

The time has come for all sections of the Pacific coast to stand together. Matters of vital importance are arising that demand our united efforts.

Friends of Miss Ryan say, however, that she has been wronged by Alexander and made several attempts to have Alexander right her in the eyes of the world, but without success.

Realizing that her appeals were useless, Miss Ryan, her friends say, yesterday purchased a ticket and intended to leave the metropolis for New York. Yesterday afternoon she was interested in the wonderful progress being made by Los Angeles and we want your people to be interested in us. We have several parties here who have been here for several weeks. Others of us may hasten back because of business demands."

SPLendid PROGRESS.

Most of the officials of the party represented by the Alexandria, L. A. National, director-general of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, is very enthusiastic over its outlook. "We are making splendid progress," said he, and friends declare she is bound to succeed.

Christopher's 241 South Spring Street

(Continued on Third Page.)

WRITING FOR GHOST MONEY.Would-be Heirs Still After Miser's Gold.Eighteen Thousand Letters
Sent to Judge Moss.Salem Charles Estate Years Ago Distributed.

The massive that brought the total number of letters received by Judge Leon H. Moss since the final settlement of the Salem Charles estate, up to 2000, arrived yesterday. Most of them have been written by people who wanted some of the $142,000 in cash found in a safe deposit box.

This case began about seven years ago and was settled so long ago that most people have forgotten all about it, except those who tried to get some of the money left by that quaint old miser, Salem Charles, who went under the name of Charles Hill.

So far as the division of the money was concerned, the case ended when the remainder of the estate, after all of the fees were paid, was divided among the eight rightful heirs. But the many people throughout the world who heard of the case were not satisfied.

They have been very persistent, so much so that Judge Moss, who handled the case for former Public Administrator Kellogg, has given up ever trying to settle this case.

While the case was in litigation, Judge Moss was forced to employ a staff of four clerks to handle the correspondence. Letters arrived from every part of the civilized and uncivilized world of the globe. Up to the time of settlement they reached the astounding total of 15,000. Those received since bring the grand total up to 18,000, with more expected to come.

When the news went out that an old man named Charles Hill had died in this city and left a fortune of $142,000 cash, the world made for the next year brought news of some other Charles Hill, who had not been heard of for years, or some Hill of another name.

Charles Hill, other Hills and Charles' could have disappeared within the fifty years prior to the death of Salem Charles, seems almost incredible, but it must be true, because Judge Moss has had the letters telling all about this horde of missing men.

Many of these letters are written by foreign visitors to America, and it kept one of the clerks busy finding interpreters who could unravel some of the communications.

The most remarkable among the letters was one from Tibet. This letter, locked in a case, had not been absolutely exclusive, for it contains a man who can write English and who read a part of an American paper telling all about the life of Charles Hill. He also claimed relationship and wanted some of the money.

GOOD STAMPS WASTED.

The most persistent of all writers was James Dodd of Cairo, Ill. James had a peculiar writing habit. The first few lines of his communication were legible, but after that his writing became an unintelligible scrawl. He wrote an average of two letters a week for four years, and then Judge Moss declined to account for him, and he did not dare to inquire. Dodd, and he has been writing, now and then, ever since. But in

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The City Council is likely to pass an ordinance requiring those seeking vacating of streets and alleys to compensate the public for a surrender of easements held by the municipality.

Judge Hutton's decision on the long-standing San Bernardino water case, handed down yesterday, was a victory for the farmers, who were given 25 inches of water.

An oral civil complaint, alleging fraud in the mortgaging of real estate, was filed in the Superior Court against L. E. Jones, the missing real estate man.

A petition was filed yesterday asking for an order to sell the real estate of J. M. Poundstone, complaining witness in the Chihuahua mining scheme, for which E. Ellsworth Rowell and A. C. LeBaron are now in the County Jail.

AT THE CITY HALL.

VACATION GRABS AT AN END.

COUNCIL WANTS PAY TO SUR- RENDER EASEMENTS.

Habit of Annexing Streets and Alleys to Private Property Now Condemned by City Officials—Board of Public Works Refuses a Request Along This Line.

Vacating streets and alleys for the benefit of private owners is likely to be a thing of the past, if an ordinance Councilman Dromgold is having prepared passes the Council.

Whenever the city wishes to open a street it will pay handsomely for the land taken. Most property owners think nothing of asking the city to vacate land that they deem of no public use.

The Dromgold ordinance will require that all such vacations must first be accompanied with an agreement to pay a just sum to the city for services to its property.

The petition filed yesterday asks for a judgment in a mortgage of $19,520 on certain property of Poundstone, by reason of the failure of the defendant to pay a note for that amount borrowed on June 9, 1908, with interest at 10 per cent.

The property involved is lot No. 20, in E. A. Miller's subdivision; a strip of 54 feet adjoining the lot on the west; lots Nos. 13 and 14 Atwood's subdivision; lot No. 9 Atwood's subdivision, and the last lot the mortgage covers all of the buildings thereon.

The prayer is for an order of sale of the property. Under the terms of the mortgage, Poundstone is obligated to pay to the firm of Smith, Miller & Phelps, 10 per cent, on the principal sum for legal services.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

COMPLICATIONS FOLLOW FELONY.

COMPLAINING WITNESS LIKELY TO LOSE PROPERTY.

PETITION FILED TO SELL REAL ESTATE MORTGAGED FOR NEARLY TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS THAT WENT INTO FAKE MINING SCHEME FOR WHICH TWO MEN ARE IN CUSTODY.

One complication in the Chihuahua mining scheme, for which E. Ellsworth Rowell and A. C. LeBaron are now in the County Jail, awaiting preliminary examination, came to light in the County Clerk's office yesterday. In the filing of a petition to sell certain real estate, the property of J. M. Poundstone.

The defendant in this action is the complaining witness against Rowell on two charges, one of securing money and property under false pretenses, and the other forgery. He set out in his complaint in the first instance that Rowell had secured in excess of $100,000 by means of his account of the mining deal, and he alleged that he was held responsible by the original holder, P. O. Goss. Defendants in the case are Ellsworth Rowell, A. C. Green, W. S. McKinnon, H. E. Krock, Nicholas Battol and John X. Thill, who are supposed to have some interest in the property attached.

The property involved is lot No. 20, in E. A. Miller's subdivision; a strip of 54 feet adjoining the lot on the west; lots Nos. 13 and 14 Atwood's subdivision; lot No. 9 Atwood's subdivision, and the last lot the mortgage covers all of the buildings thereon.

The prayer is for an order of sale of the property. Under the terms of the mortgage, Poundstone is obligated to pay to the firm of Smith, Miller & Phelps, 10 per cent, on the principal sum for legal services.

LUCKY WATSON,

IS ADMITTED TO PROBATION.

Judge Willis yesterday admitted R. E. Watson to five years' probation, the trial for robbery, one of the conditions of the act of clemency being that he remain within the county during that period.

Watson pleaded guilty of having sent a revolver and shells into the County Jail, to be used by F. J. Humely, an inmate of the jail, and attempted to effect his escape by shooting the jail bars, if necessary.

Humely was afterward sent to San Quentin, seven years, where he is now confined.

Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

Gen. Chaffee agreed with the mere fact that land intended for public use is not now used is no reason why it should be vacated. He also thought the officers should be remunerated in such cases, just as it has to remunerate when land is condemned.

The Council has had a number of vacations before, lately, he said, it was not necessary for building purposes it is worth something to those who need it, said Mr. Kern.

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN

BY MISS SYDNEY FORD.

At one of the big stores, I was shown a buyer just back from New York, and she told me that the New York woman of whom I speak is clad in black from head to toe. "She wears a black hat, black furs, black coat," said my informant, "and she is always shopping or traveling. Her gown is brightened with jet or rhinestones—just an embroidery on the bodice perhaps—and no sleeves—just an embroidery across the arm below the shoulders. But it is the noisiest silk you ever saw! It fairly shouts. It is of metallic satin, perhaps, and cut out decolleté; of course this is the gown given I am speaking of—and it always stays in the streets."

Then there is a necklace containing eight pearls, blue white diamonds and so forth, to match the gown, and worn as a pair of bracelets, if one desires. The stones are in graduated sizes, the largest being as big as a hen's egg. How much? Oh, about $650.

Ribbon Drapes for Hats.

Among the novelties on the ribbon counters I find a new brand of lovely scarfs twelve inches wide, designed for the Panama hats, which promise to be great garden parties, picnics and out-of-door excursions. These are of pongee ribbon, in stripes and plaids—each one in a pattern by itself, measuring exactly one yard in length. The colors are gay. There are the lovely grenadine ribbons, which come in all colors, and the soft, rajah ribbons, in all the new shades.

Fashionable Fads.

The grays and the pastels predominate in the hats to-day. It is told that Montezuma was one of the worst dandies ever known in the Southwest, and that he had been guilty of the murders of at least three men.

When two immature roses appear on the same hat they are unusually flat in shape.

It is said that steel or bead-studded hats will be a novelty of the season.

Many of the tailor-mades for the advance spring trade are of the advance-plus kind.

There is a fad for lacing the sleeves all the way up on the outside of the arm.

Laces will be more than rivaled in popularity by embroidery and braid trimming.

The "flower-pot" crown of a hundred years ago bids fair to be a favorite again.

High ruffles are going out, and in their place are seen crush-ribbon and satin folds.

Pretty chains for muff or coin purse may be seen on a plaited ribbon to match the suit.

CITY OF THE DESERT.

BIG BOOM ON AT COURTLAND.

MINING CAMP DEVELOPING INTO SOLID TOWN.

All Lots Platted Are Sold and Many Business Enterprises Will Be Started, Including a Large Hotel and a Company to Provide a Water Supply.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES,
DOUGLAS, Feb. 25.—There is very much of a boom in Courtland, mainly because of the rush with which two railroads are being brought into that camp. The richness of the ore bodies and their large size has been appreciated from the first, and the development of the district was assured when the Copper Queen and Calumet and Arizona companies took hold of the mining properties of the camp. It is pointed out that the camp is in the present time in more or less forced and artificial, but there is a strong belief that the mineral wealth of the district will insure construction and maintenance of a town, possibly the size of Douglas. The new camp lacks water power, although water is likely to be found in the mines, but not of quality fit for drinking purposes. Most of the ore bodies are smelted here in Douglas, though a part of it will go northward to the smelter there.

GAIETY AT THE POTTER.
The Potter Hotel is gay tonight. There is a perfect stampede of San Franciscans notable to this popular resort, making points to a top-notch season here.

Within a few days the magnificent Potter Country Club, in the Hope ranch, with its golf links, polo grounds, tennis courts, swimming pools, will be opened. There will be tournaments galore. The Coronado golf team is due here early next month and the Philadelphia team is also coming.

Mrs. A. A. Moore, whose husband is among the lawyers defending Patrick Calhoun, in San Francisco, arrived today with her daughters.

Col. Kirkpatrick, wife of Col. Kirkpatrick of San Francisco, and Miss Kirkpatrick are guests.

Reservations from Coronado, Riverside, Pasadena, and Los Angeles for next week, aggregate 400 to 450.

Week-end reservations also are popular from Los Angeles and tomorrow evening the merry crowd will be gathered with a grand ball.

phur Springs Valley, where hundreds of farmers have settled within the last year and are trying dry farming, supplemented by pumps from the abundant underground water supply.

GALE SWEEPS DESERT.

Sunday a terrific gale raged all over Southeastern Arizona. Most of the temporary structures at Courtland appear to have been blown down, and the dust is described as undurable.

It is estimated that 100 houses were completely destroyed over the townsite, and in the morning it was seen that most of the shacks had disappeared. The blow was heavy in Douglas, but did little damage. Much sand is reported from the desert, where a number of roofs were blown off and glass windows were demolished by flying debris or simply by the force of the wind. Several small houses were completely destroyed.

As an instance of the force of the wind, the heavy glass front of a Biabee trolley car was blown in. There was something of a snowfall on Saturday night.

The Mayor of Douglas, led by the Mayor, are indignant over an order just promulgated by the Douglas gas corporation that heretofore a minimum charge of $1.50 per month must be required from all consumers. One of the main owners of the stock of the company is H. W. Hamaker of Los Angeles. The company is partially owned by the gas company and must pay into the city 2½ per cent. of its gross earnings. Payments of this percentage have aggregated $1117 since the inauguration of business by the company in 1907.

About six months will be required to complete two miles of heavy rock work in the canon below Nacoari, on which from 300 to 400 men have been employed for longer than a year in grading the roadbed for the Yaqui River extension of the Southern Pacific lines. The rest of the way to Moctezuma, sixty miles southward, is now dirt roads.

Juan Montes was killed at Cananea last week by Mexican police, while attempting to dynamite the home of a former sweetheart, who had preferred him to himself. It is told that Montes was one of the worst desperados ever known in the Southwest, and that he had been guilty of the murders of at least three men.

Montes' golf tournament in Douglas between teams representing this city and El Paso was easily won by the local club.

VOTE GOOD ROADS BONDS.

Montecito Valley Decides Needs

There and Santa Barbara May Follow Suit.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 26.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) By the end of this month the voters of the Montecito Valley today voted to issue $50,000 worth of good roads bonds. Santa Barbara county last fall turned down the same question, and Montecito's part of the cost would have been $72,000 for less than two miles of roads.

With the present issue, more than six million dollars will be paved.

This is the opening wedge for good roads in this county and Santa Barbara city has seen the "handwriting on the wall."

BETTER PATTERNED Suits

Better patterns; better materials; better tailoring; dandy suits for dress or school wear, and others at $4.00 for smaller boys equally unusual.

Free Baseball and Bat

With $5.00 Suits

for boys today. That's an offering little men take delight in. Good baseballs and bats, too. Buy the boy his clothing at Bullock's Saturday.

Story Telling on the Roof Garden,
2:30 to 4:30.

Bullock's Broadway at Seventh

Hear La Monaca's Band in the Restaurant, 12 to 1:30.

Dainty Spring Neckpieces

from New York, London and Paris are here. An extraordinary showing of the most exquisite neckpieces, ruffs, cuffs, veils, drapes and scarfs that it is possible to imagine, and nearly every boat that plies between the style centers of Europe and America bears a case marked "Bullock's," which contains the very newest and cleverest conceptions to add to this display. Saturday an unusually large number of new novelties will be ready. Some are just being taken from their boxes as this is being written, others will be unpacked and rushed forward Saturday morning. It's a display no woman who is fond of dainty fixings should overlook. See it. Section C, Front.

At 25c we are showing a dainty line of Ascots, both tied and untied, of heavy madras and pique and military, Gibson and lace stocks in endless variety.

At 50c, beautiful hand-made neckpieces that are exquisitely appliqued and jeweled.

Hardressing and Manicuring

Are both Arts—and Bullock's Experts are accomplished Experts in both lines. The parlors on the fourth floor hold many conveniences that add peculiar delight.

Boy's New Suits at . . . $6.50

Sizes 7 to 17 Years

Better patterns; better materials; better tailoring; dandy suits for dress or school wear, and others at $4.00 for smaller boys equally unusual.

Free Baseball and Bat

With $5.00 Suits

for boys today. That's an offering little men take delight in. Good baseballs and bats, too. Buy the boy his clothing at Bullock's Saturday.

An unusually complete assortment of hand embroidered jabots and bows, in both white and colored patterns, are here, priced $1.00 to $5.00. Then there is New York's latest fad—the Eton collar, in linen and lace, with bows and jabots to match, 50c to $5.00.

Headaches Are Nervographs

—from your eyes to you. Everyone a call for the help they need so badly.

Properly fitted glasses have prevented more than one case of blindness.

If you are being warned see the Optical Specialist, 4th floor, now. He will be in his office all day today.

FREE CONSULTATION AND ADVICE.

Educator Shoes for Children

If there were a board of specialists to determine the shoes children should wear—as there is to set the school books they shall use—there would not be as many suffering feet.

And Educator shoes would be worn by every child. They are built to let the little feet grow right. They let the child wiggle his toes.

At Bullock's exclusively.

Steamships.

AMERICAN LINE.

Plymouth—Cork—Durham—Southampton

St. Louis—Mar. 4½ Paul—Mar. 5

Philadelphia—Quincy—Boston

Haverford—Mar. 12 Friesland—Apr. 10

Merion—Mar. 13—Apr. 17

ATLANTIC TRANSPORT LINE

New York—London Direct

Minneapolis—Mar. 20 Minneapolis—Apr. 17

LAUREL AMERICA LINE

New York—Boston—Philadelphia

Nordam—Mar. 19 New Amsterdam Mar. 20

Ryndam—Mar. 20 New Amsterdam Apr. 6

RED STAR LINE

New York—Dover—Antwerp

Kirkdale—Mar. 12 Callao—Apr. 5

Zeeland—Mar. 13 Callao—Apr. 6

WHITE STAR LINE

New York—Liverpool

Celtic—Mar. 12 Cedric—Apr. 2

Baltic—Mar. 12 Celtic—Apr. 2

Majestic—Mar. 19 Majestic—Apr. 17

Oceanic—Mar. 12 Adriatic—Mar. 2

CYMRIIC

Mar. 24 May 1 May 29

NEW YORK AND ITALY AND EGYPT

Via Azores, Madeira and Gibraltar

Romanic—Mar. 12 Aug. 17 May 22 July 3

Finland—Mar. 22 Apr. 2 June 5 July 10

Cretan—Mar. 22 Apr. 15 June 15 July 10

G. N. KOEPPEL'S Passenger Agent

Coast, 40 Ellis St., Near Market, San Francisco.

or H. B. Rice Co., 609 S. Spring St., L. A.

North German Lloyd

Fast Express Service

PLYMOUTH—CHERBOURG—BREMEN—10 a.m.

K. Wm. D. Gr. Mar. Kneppen Wm. Apr. 12

Twin-Screw Passenger Service

BREMEN—DUBLIN—10 a.m.

Groenland—March 18 Schleswag—Mar. 20

Zeeland—Mar. 21 Albert—Mar. 22

Barbarossa—Mar. 22—Mar. 23

"Does not call at Algiers and Genoa.

North German Lloyd Travelers' Checks

Robert Capron, 100 Spring St., L. A. Spec. Agent Hugh B. Rice Co., 609 Spring St., L. A. American Savings Bank Steamship Department, Spring and Fourth Streets, Los Angeles, Cal.

MEDITERRANEAN SERVICE

GIBRALTAR—10 a.m.

Battling at 11 a.m.

Cecilia—Mar. 21 Albert—Mar. 22

Barbarossa—Mar. 22—Mar. 23

"Does not call at Algiers and Genoa.

Canadian Pacific

Less than Four Days to Europe, via Quebec and Liverpool.

Two days on the beautiful St. Lawrence River and the shortest ocean route to Europe.

Fancy Net Waists $2.45

Special waist values today. Charming and fancy allover net; tailored or prettily trimed with silk dots in blue, pink, brown and shades. Many finished with ruffles of fashion. Colors, white, cream or ecru, navy, etc. Regular $5.00 waists $2.45.

Waists $1.48

Lawn Waists .75c

Sheer white and linen color, dainty models with clusters of tucks; others with plaited; open back; 3-4 length sleeves; values to $1.48 at 75c.

$1.00 Dresses 59c

Sizes 4 to 14 Years

Children's elegant dresses in pretty colors and gingham, made with wide lace on the left side; prettily trimmed with white pique stripes and embroidery medallions. Gathered skirt, a number of attractive colors. Regular $1.00 dresses 59c.

$1.25 Dresses 75c

Sizes 4 to 14 Years

Handsome wash dresses of gingham, percale and chambrey; French and blues styles, prettily trimmed with lace yokes and blue bands; full skirts, finished with deep hem. Sizes for children 4 to 14 years; $1.25 dresses 75c.

"South of the Tehachapi."

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

READER,

LEASE MIND HIES TO JAIL.

by His Conscience He Tramps Miles.

One Cell and Starts for Another.

Wants to Pay Penalty of an Old Crime.

MENDOCINO, Feb. 26.—Samuel, troubled by a conscience, did not let him rest, has sold all the way from San Diego to the north, to a burglar he committed October 16, last. He broke into the English Inn at Oak Glen, above Redlands, and made off with a rifle and a shotgun. At Oceanside, he stole a wheel and axle, and rode to Escondido, and was soon to the County Jail here to serve a four months' sentence.

He had served this term, and of his cell hardly opened. He states that he sold the gun to a man he met at Oceanside, who had come to the Redlands to Rodians to commit another offense.

Crane, to whom Adams had sold the self-accused man, took the gun store and examined next week. He that he has been able to find from his accusing conscience, only hope for peace after he had paid his crime according to law.

VENTURA, Feb. 26.—The lime bean growers of this county are to form an association for their own betterment. Several attempts have been made in the past in this direction, but without success. The first time organization was effected, it was found after the effort was given up, that the men involved were not interested in the bigamy of the man, and the organization fell to pieces. Since that time little has been done, though each year there is some reason to believe that this will change. A marked slump in the price of beans and the growers are aroused to the conditions which they have to face. With most of the crop on hand and prices low, they have concluded something must be done.

SEEKING WATER. Walnuts are under way at the desert, to locate the arroyo, which is believed to exist near the town of Los Angeles. Inasmuch as the section is arid, the water is the chief encouragement. A local painter, today has a twenty-foot ladder, breaking and sustaining numerous trees in condition is serious.

TAKES UP THE RELIC.

The old street car line is being taken up from end to end so that the grading and paving of the streets can be carried on. The line was put down in 1891. The prime movers in the enterprise were W. C. Chaffee, W. W. White, J. Robert Capen, Robinson, G. W. Christian, E. P. Foster, J. K. Gries. The project was to build an electric road between this city and Nordhoff, but a financial slump caused the enterprise to stop.

A movement is on foot to plant palm trees each side of the new Thompson boulevard for the entire two miles. The Native Daughters have the money to do the work, and will help to get permission for go ahead, which will no doubt be granted. The Native Daughters have improved many of the thoroughfares of this city by the planting of palms on both sides.

The funeral of the late J. C. Brewster was held this afternoon and was largely attended. The remains of the late Harsfield will be taken to San Diego for interment.

CHARLES F. PRATT, secretary of the Standard Oil Company, will shortly begin the erection of a bungalow in the Ojai Valley.

KODOL is at home after a visit at his daughter's house.

Mrs. Sweeney has been asked the pulpit of the Methodist Sunday. The pastor of the church, Rev. J. M. Roberts, is spending his vacation in the country.

Mr. G. A. Lane are spending days in Los Angeles.

The freight-cars on the Esmond train jumped the track yesterday. No one was hurt, but passengers were compelled to on the engine.

ENCINITAS.

FEB. 26.—Sam Ling is the Trustee for a rebate of part of his water bill. Sam laundry and has vegetable garden, a large quantity of vegetables; he has the country, and has a healthy brother.

The Rodians wife, who is as wife, No. 3, refuses to withdraw.

SEEKING WATER.

Walnut growers and the citrus fruit men have made organizations for handling their commodities so successful that they have been successfully organized.

The citrus fruit men are determined to pattern after them. They will organize and find a market for themselves where good prices will be assured.

TAKE UP THE RELIC.

The old street car line is being taken up from end to end so that the grading and paving of the streets can be carried on. The line was put down in 1891. The prime movers in the enterprise were W. C. Chaffee, W. W. White, J. Robert Capen, Robinson, G. W. Christian, E. P. Foster, J. K. Gries. The project was to build an electric road between this city and Nordhoff, but a financial slump caused the enterprise to stop.

A movement is on foot to plant palm trees each side of the new Thompson boulevard for the entire two miles.

The Native Daughters have the money to do the work, and will help to get permission for go ahead, which will no doubt be granted. The Native Daughters have improved many of the thoroughfares of this city by the planting of palms on both sides.

The funeral of the late J. C. Brewster was held this afternoon and was largely attended. The remains of the late Harsfield will be taken to San Diego for interment.

CHARLES F. PRATT, secretary of the Standard Oil Company, will shortly begin the erection of a bungalow in the Ojai Valley.

KODOL is at home after a visit at his daughter's house.

Mrs. Sweeney has been asked the pulpit of the Methodist Sunday. The pastor of the church, Rev. J. M. Roberts, is spending his vacation in the country.

Mr. G. A. Lane are spending days in Los Angeles.

The freight-cars on the Esmond train jumped the track yesterday. No one was hurt, but passengers were compelled to on the engine.

ENCINITAS.

FEB. 26.—For the purpose of shipping fruit for the Pacific Exposition at Seattle, Jasper, who will have the display from San Diego in the valley, yesterday, to Los Angeles. Fruit Company and raisins from John C. Dickson, Charles Callaway. Exhibits materials of the district will be secured.

THE CASE AGAINST GEORGE YUNG FOR HAVING LIVE QUAIL IN HIS POSSESSION HAS BEEN SETTLED OUT OF COURT.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H. Hendrickson has purchased acreage on Grand avenue, adjoining the Elizabeth Street.

Rev. J. M. Jones was arrested yesterday for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Lizzie B. Coombs of Sacramento. The trial will be held in San Francisco on March 4. C. N. Gardner, of the Lakeview Inn, will be the presiding officer.

The case against George Yung for having live quail in his possession has been settled out of court.

H.

BIBLE LESSONS.

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS AND OTHER BIBLE STUDENTS.

Prepared for The Times by J. S. Kirtley.

SUNDAY FEBRUARY 21.

Acts viii, 4-5: "The Gospel in Samaria."

THE CONNECTION.

The murder of Stephen was the first taste of blood and the tiger in the heart of the enemy became rampant. The young man Saul of Tarsus became the leader of the new form of persecution. Men and women were dragged to prison. But God causes the wrath of man to praise him and the scattered disciples lighted the gospel fires wherever they went.

THE LESSON.

"Sympathy From Mother Church." (Verses 14-15.)

"Now when the apostles that were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto Peter and John, who when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit; for as yet he was fallen upon none of them; only they had been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus; and then they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit."

(1.) The New Leader of the Enemy. Saul of Tarsus was a great leader of men and was notorious for God.

Finding himself at the head of the bloody business did he work thoroughly, for he laid waste the church as a wild beast would lay waste a field of grain. He did it systematically, for it was a house-to-house process; he did it with unspeakable brutality, for he dragged women as well as men to prison, and from words of his own we judge that he sometimes tortured them. He was determined to receive forgiveness and cease to practice sin, as he afterwards tells us, for he thought he was defending God's honor and properly punishing evildoers.

As a result Jerusalem was a dangerous place for them and most of the church was driven out of the city. The apostles remained either because being less sympathetic with the Gentiles they were less subject to persecution, or because they bravely ran the risk of death in order to supply the needs of the city.

(2.) The New Era of Christianity. This introduces a new era in Christianity, a distinct era—the enlarged work of laymen and missionary work. This new movement is started by two laymen, who had been converted by the apostles. Their preaching widened their thoughts of the gospel and brought on the persecution which drove them out to preach the gospel to foreigners. Philip, who was a fisherman, converts. From that time every man was an informal preacher. The word translated "preaching" is very much like our word "chirping," for they were chattering the news. Why they had not made any effort to obey Christ's last command to go into all the world with the gospel is not known. Under their stubborn Jewish feelings, the influence in Jerusalem and their popularity, which made it very comfortable for them, and to the further fact that many more now came to Jerusalem to attend the feasts and were converted there. Two things start them at it however: Christian friends that had been converted and the persecution that drives them out. They not only accept the inevitable, but make use of it. Though they were driven with the wind, they were given the momentum of the wind and powerful lever to the force that sent them out of the city, and deliberately, wisely, systematically went about their work.

(3.) The Attack on Samaria.

Their experience in only one place is recorded and that is because the people there persecuted the Samarians.

They were descended from those five foreign nations whom Shalmanezer brought from the distant East more than 600 years before and were ministering to the Jews. The mongrel race had enough Jewish blood in them to cherish the hope of a Messiah, yet they were ranked with Gentiles and were even worse than those who were wholly Gentiles.

Is not this the reason their ancestors were brought there centuries before? that these descendants might bring the same return? Few Gentiles?

The bold-minded Philip was the one who went there.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

1. Is there any special gift of the Holy Spirit for us?

2. Would some persecution do us good?

3. Is there any race prejudice for us over others?

4. Are there any traces of sin among us?

5. Why does not the offer of pardon for sin encourage the practice of sin?

6. What is the strongest reason for home missions?

Christian Endeavor.

THE NEW FIRING LINE.

Times Comments Upon the Christian Endeavor Topic for February 21: "Home Missions: Presenting Flowers."

1-4.

By William T. Ellis.

Simon was a shrewd soothsayer, like the man who still practices magic in the East. His prophecies were based on his claim to be a higher order of being. He saw there was a reality and a power to Philip and the gospel he preached and he allied himself with it, for he saw that Philip had the power in his business. He had not heard of Ananias and Sapphira, evidently.

(4.) The Pretended Conversion.

Simon was a shrewd soothsayer, like the man who still practices magic in the East. His prophecies were based on his claim to be a higher order of being.

The delegation was sent with the desire to know the secret of the master, with the purpose of preventing any errors and extravagance, with the benevolent purpose of instructing and improving the world. They were there to help and they did so, especially in imparting to them the endowment of the Holy Ghost.

That was completed, their equipment for serving God. Philip would answer any for the Spirit and God would answer him. The Spirit had converted him. He saw best. The Spirit had converted them; how he would empower them to serve God. It was not the apostle, but only the apostle could impart that gift and it died with them. Every one who was converted had the Holy Spirit; some received His power in a large way, so it was to be called receiving the Holy Ghost; some did not receive the special power at all. The hands were laid on to signify, not that they imparted the gift themselves, but that they received it from God. Simon saw that they had a power which he had not and from that moment his own all-absorbing purpose was to secure it for himself, so that he might gain his lost influence and resume the acquisition of money.

II.

"The Singular Case of Simon." (Verses 15-25.)

Now, when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Spirit of God was upon them, he said, "Give me also this power, that on whomever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit." But Peter said unto him, "Thy silver and gold have I none; but what I have thought to obtain the gift of God with money, Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter; for thy heart is not right before God." Repent therefore of thy wickedness, and sin no more; for perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee. For I see that thou art in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity. And Simon answered him, "I beseech thee to give me also this power, that none of the things which ye have spoken come unto me."

They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."

"There was never a hand to toll,

"There was never a bell in the church, steeple:

"There was never a priest to pray."